Research fair opening Friday at Tech

By the Standard Staff - 04/06/2006

Montana Tech will open its Undergraduate Research Fair Friday with a talk by geophysics professor Marvin Speece.

The talk starts at 6:30 p.m. in the Mining-Geology building, Room 204. Speece will discuss the search for new geologic drill sites in Antarctica." On Saturday, the fair runs 8:35 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the Student Union Building.

The 10th annual fair recognizes research by Tech's undergraduate students.

Our online archives will search back as early as 01/01/2000.

If you are looking for an article or obituary older than January of 2000, you may contact our city desk editor. Because we have to manually search our bound paper archives, there is a $35/hour administrative fee for this service.

Another option for doing research is the Butte-Silver Bow Archives or the Butte Public Library. The archives contain all non-current government documents and a wide variety of other historical materials.
